

Jonathan Ablett
Executive Director,
IHS Markit

Mr. Ablett leads the IHS Markit team in charge of scenario design and new macroeconomic and sectoral economic models. As part of this work, he helps develop customized macroeconomic scenarios for due diligence, regulatory stress tests, impact analysis, and strategic planning purposes. He leads the team that implements these scenarios, operates the IHS Markit proprietary macroeconomic model, and designs new models for additional client purposes.

Prior to joining IHS Markit, Mr. Ablett was an Expert at the McKinsey Global Institute, the think tank of McKinsey and Company, where he specialized in applied economic and strategic analysis for both private and public sector clients. Prior to joining McKinsey, Jonathan worked at the Massachusetts House Ways & Means Committee developing budget and policy recommendations and the World Bank. He holds an M.A. in Economics from McGill University and an M.B.A. from Babson College.
