

Lesley Hunter

Vice President of Programs & Content Strategy,
American Council on Renewable Energy (ACORE)

As Vice President for Programs & Content Strategy, Lesley provides strategic leadership to oversee programs and content workstreams, aligning operations in support of ACORE's mission. She currently leads ACORE's Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) initiative to improve the reflection of renewable energy use and investment in ESG methodologies. Previously, she managed initiatives to help the Department of Defense procure renewable energy at military installations, and to streamline strategies for corporate renewable energy purchasing. She is also the author of numerous reports on renewable energy market, finance and policy issues. Lesley received her Bachelor of Arts in International Studies from the University of California, San Diego.
