

Stuart B. Cohen, CFA, CPA

Senior Financial Officer, World Bank Group

Chair, Programs and Education Committee, CFA Society Washington, DC

Mr. Cohen has over 25 years of direct experience working with all aspects of Asset Management including portfolio management, credit risk, operations risk, valuation, accounting, reporting and internal controls. Currently at the World Bank Group, Mr. Cohen serves as the Team Lead for Liquid Investments Accounting, Reporting, and Independent Price Verification Team that is responsible for the daily controls, monthly and quarterly Financial Reporting for the Liquid Investments of IBRD, IDA, MIGA and Trust Funds which total approximately $135 Billion.

Prior to joining the World Bank, Mr. Cohen was a Manager at Fannie Mae for 13 years serving in a variety roles in the Investment Front Office, Middle Office, and Back Office as well as in the Corporate Controllers unit. Prior to joining Fannie Mae, Mr. Cohen was a Senior Manager with KPMG, and served in various financial roles with Community Banks.

Mr. Cohen earned a BBA from the University of Massachusetts and a MBA from The George Washington University. He is a CFA® Charterholder and a Licensed CPA in the Commonwealth of Virginia.