

Victor M. Krasij, CFA

Senior Director, Wealth Manager, BNY Mellon Wealth Management
Board of Directors, CFA Society Washington, DC

Victor Krasij is a Senior Wealth Manager in the McLean, VA office of BNY Mellon Wealth Management. In this role, he works directly with clients to address their investment and wealth management needs.

Victor has 15 years of experience in investment management and research, with a focus on wealth management. Victor joined the firm from U.S. Trust where he provided clients with proactive, highly personalized advice across investment management and wealth planning. Prior to joining U.S. Trust, Victor was a Team Leader at Cambridge Associates, where he built long-lasting relationships with his clients while mentoring his team of analysts, who covered 120 high-profile client portfolios totaling over $20 billion in assets. Victor joined Cambridge Associates in 2005 and supported a variety of clients including colleges, universities, foundations, pensions, healthcare organizations, museums, independent schools, as well as high-net-worth private clients and family offices.