

Pauline Bell
Equity Analyst, CFRA

Pauline Bell is an equity analyst at CFRA Research, conducting fundamental analysis and valuation assessment within the U.S. Regional Banks, Canadian Diversified Banks, and Investment Banking & Brokerage areas.

Prior to joining CFRA, she worked as a loan officer for the Export-Import Bank of the United States, specializing in project and export finance with a focus on the energy and satellite transactions. Prior to that, she was an analyst with a boutique private equity firm in Washington, DC. She currently serves as a board member of the Washington Association of Money Managers and is the Subcommittee Co-Chair for Women's Investment Network, CFA Society of Washington, DC.

Pauline holds a BA degree (summa cum laude) from Emory University and a MSFS degree with distinction from Georgetown University.