

Walton Liles

Principal, Blue Ridge Law & Policy, P.C

Walton Liles advises a wide range of companies on regulatory and legislative policy matters and government investigations, with a particular focus on capital markets and corporate governance issues. He previously served as Senior Counsel to the House Committee on Financial Services, where he advised the Committee's Republican Members on capital markets issues. Mr. Liles also previously served as Vice President of Federal Government Relations at Fidelity Investments, where he advocated for and promoted Fidelity's public policy interests before Congress and financial regulatory agencies. Before working for the Financial Services Committee, Mr. Liles worked in the Washington office of Goodwin Procter LLP, where his practice focused on financial services litigation and government investigations. He began his career as a law clerk to the Honorable Joel F. Dubina of the United States Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit. Prior to co-founding Blue Ridge, Mr. Liles served as an Executive Vice President at Patomak Global Partners. Mr. Liles received his B.A. in History and Economics from the University of Virginia and his J.D., summa cum laude, from the University of Alabama School of Law.
