

Amlan Roy , Ph.D.

Head, Global Macro Policy Research, Economics, State Street Global Advisors

Dr Amlan Roy is Head of Global Macro Policy Research and Senior MD at State Street's Asset Management Division (SSGA). He leads a Research team focused on Macroeconomics, Policy & Politics, Retirement & Demographics serving external and internal clients of State Street Group across 30+ countries. Prior to his current role, he was Global Chief Retirement Strategist and Senior MD since April 2017. He is a seasoned global public speaker and an experienced Global Macro Researcher specializing in Macroeconomics & Policy, Portfolio Theory, Demographics & Retirement. He researches issues related to Growth, Monetary Policy, Asset Allocation, EM, Gender Disparity and, Systemic risks. He is a Senior Research Associate at London School of Economics and Guest Finance Professor at London Business School.

Prior to joining SSGA, Amlan was Head of Global Demographics & Pensions Research and MD at Credit Suisse Investment Bank having joined there in 1998. At Credit Suisse, he was a client facing Global Macro researcher. In a prior role as EM Strategist, he developed global risk and asset allocation models serving as an international expert on Financial System Architecture. His research in Global Demographics & Pensions drew on the fields of Macroeconomics, Portfolio Theory, Behavioural Economics, Statistics, Derivatives and Econometrics.

Prior to Credit Suisse, he spent over a decade in academia with a distinguished teaching career in the US and the UK. He was UK ESRC Research Fellow, Ponders Fellow, a Boston University Doctoral Scholar and a Government of India National Scholar. Amlan has a PhD and an MA in Financial Economics from the University of Iowa, an MBA from Indian Institute of Management Ahmedabad and a BA Honours in Economics from St. Stephen's College, University of Delhi.