

Gregory Sullivan, CPA, CFP

Principal, Co-CEO, Sullivan Bruyette Speros & Blayney (SBSB)

Greg Sullivan is a Principal and Co-CEO of Sullivan Bruyette Speros & Blayney (SBSB).

Greg enjoys making an impact on the firm in its continued growth and development as well as providing financial advice to high net worth and ultra-high net worth clients. He co-founded the firm in 1991 and has over 35 years of business, investment management, and financial planning experience.

After earning his degree in Accounting from The Pennsylvania State University, he started his career with Ernst and Whinney (now Ernst and Young). Greg is a Certified Public Accountant (CPA) and a CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ professional and is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) and the Financial Planning Association (FPA).

A national financial publication, Barron's, has recognized Greg as one of the Top 100 Independent Advisors and Washingtonian magazine identified him as one of the Top Wealth Advisors in Washington, DC.

Greg's involvement in the financial planning and wealth management communities is well-established. He is a founding member of both the Alpha Group and Blind Squirrels, national consortia of wealth managers and business owners. He served as Chairman (1996-97), President (1995-96), and on the Board of Directors (1989-97) of the International Association for Financial Planning (now called the Financial Planning Association).
