

Joe Burgoyne

Director, Institutional Education, Options Industry Council

Joseph Burgoyne is Director, Institutional Education for the Options Industry Council.

He is responsible for supporting the institutional and university education programs. Additionally, Mr. Burgoyne serves as a staff instructor for The Options Industry Council. Prior to joining the OIC, he served as Director of Business Development for Volatility. Previously, he was Managing Partner of Burgoyne Capital Management, LLC. Mr. Burgoyne also managed the floor operations at the Philadelphia Stock Exchange for Van der Moolen Options USA and Tague Securities. His responsibilities included portfolio risk management, making markets and the development of proprietary databases.