

Jill Hall, CFA

Head of US Small and Mid-Cap Strategy and Senior US Equity Strategist, Bank of America Global Research

Jill Carey Hall is a director and Head of US Small and Mid-Cap Strategy who joined BofA Global Research in 2009. As a senior US Equity Strategist, she works closely with Savita Subramanian, in determining forecasts for the S&P 500, recommending sector allocations for US equities, and publishing thematic reports. Hall also authors a proprietary analysis of BofA equity client flow trends and leads the firm's Global Research US small and mid-cap strategy work.

Hall has been quoted in various financial news publications including the Wall Street Journal and Financial Times and is a frequent guest on CNBC and Bloomberg TV. She was named Bank of America's 2016 "Rising Star" within Global Banking and Markets, an award given annually by the Women's Bond Club to recognize aspiring leaders on Wall Street.

Hall has a bachelor's degree in economics and business and a bachelor's degree in English from Lafayette College. She is a CFA charterholder.
