

Jacques Rousseau
Managing Director
Clearview Energy Partners, LLC

Jacques Rousseau is a Managing Director for Clearview Energy Partners, LLC covering global crude oil, natural gas and refined products fundamentals.

Mr. Rousseau has over 30 years of experience in the energy sector, starting his career with Mobil Oil Corporation then working as a sell-side equity research analyst for companies including Morgan Stanley and RBC Capital Markets. He has forecasted important energy sector trends in his research reports including Redefining Refining: Supply Crunch Looming, Ethanol: A High Octane Player in the Energy Sector and The IMO Y2K-20 Scenario. He is frequently sought out by the media as an energy sector expert.

Mr. Rousseau holds a B.S. in Business and Economics from Lehigh University and a MBA in Finance from New York University's Stern School of Business. He is a CFA Charterholder and passed the CPA exam in the state of New York.