

Gabriel Thoumi, CFA FRM, Certified Ecologist
CEO
Responsible Alpha

Gabriel Thoumi, CFA, FRM, Certified Ecologist, CEO, Responsible Alpha, is a thematic investment research manager with over 12 years' experience as an award-winning ESG analyst (2014, 2015, 2020 & 2021). He is also an Erb Institute and Consortium Fellowship recipient. He is a member of various Fortune 500 and NGO boards and scientific and financial technical committees, including the S&P Global Sustainable Finance Scientific Council and the IFRS Foundation ISSB Technical Reference Group.

He has published over 70 thematic research reports employing ESG integration skills and peer review papers, and hundreds of news articles on capital markets and ESG integration.

He is an adjunct lecturer at Johns Hopkins University where he teaches Financing a Sustainable World. Gabriel has an MBA and MSc in Natural Resources and Sustainability from the University of Michigan.

During his career, he has worked with, consulted for, or presented at Calvert Investments, Wells Fargo, American Express, Intel Corporation, IUCN, Ocean Conservancy, UNFCCC, Bernstein, Nestlé, Nasdaq, Interpol, and many other institutions.