

Chris Tidmore, CFA
Senior Manager
Vanguard Investment Advisor Research Center

Chris Tidmore is a senior manager in Vanguard's Investment Advisor Research Center creating thought leadership in the areas of investments, wealth management and behavioral coaching. Prior to his current role, Chris was a senior investment strategist in Vanguard's Investment Strategy Group, where he led the team that conducts research and provides thought leadership on issues related to alternatives, active management, and investor behavior.

Before joining Vanguard in 2015, Chris managed the Geneva Arbitrage Fund which focused on event-driven investment strategies. In other capacities he has worked as an arbitrage trader and portfolio manager for a large family office and as an options market maker on the American Stock Exchange. Before shifting to the securities industry, he was employed as an auditor, providing audit, accounting, and consulting services.

Mr. Tidmore has developed and taught classes on a variety of finance and investment topics for various institutions and universities. Chris is a frequent speaker at industry conferences and has published white papers on a variety of investment related topics. He earned a B.S. in accounting at the University of Delaware is a CFA® charterholder and certified public accountant and is an investment committee board member of the Chester County Community Foundation and past president of the CFA Society of Philadelphia.