

David Hyman, CFA

Partner, Head of Client Service, Financial Intermediary Practice

Marsh Investments

As Head of Client Service for the financial intermediary practice, Mr. Hyman develops client relationships across various financial intermediaries – including registered investment advisors and regional banks – and drives the advancement and growth of client investment platforms and portfolios. Mr. Hyman currently serves as co-chair of Marsh's Wealth Management Investment Committee; Mr. Hyman previously served on Marsh's Equity and Wealth Management Strategic Research Teams and Equity Manager Ratings Review Committee, which determines views of specific investment manager strategies.

Mr. Hyman joined Marsh (formerly Mercer) in 2011 after having worked at Evaluation Associates since 1999. Prior to Evaluation Associates, he worked as an investment research analyst at American Planning Group, a wealth management firm that serves high-net-worth individuals.

Mr. Hyman received a BA in communications and political science from the University of Michigan and an MBA in finance from the Leonard N. Stern School of Business at New York University. He holds the Chartered Financial Analyst designation and is a member of the CFA Institute, CFA Society New York, and CFA Society Stamford. He also holds FINRA Series 3 and 30 licenses.

Mr. Hyman serves as an investment committee member of the Westport (CT) Public Library and is a member of the MMI Institutional Steering Committee. He formerly served as a trustee of The Conservative Synagogue of Westport.
