

Lowell Pratt Jr., CFA

President and Chairman

Lowell joined Burney in 1986, became a Portfolio Manager in 1992, was promoted to Director of Analysis in 1996, and became President in 2003. Lowell earned his Chartered Financial Analyst designation in 1989, has a BS in Finance and Economics from Virginia Tech, and an MS in Banking and Financial Management from Boston University. Lowell enjoys spending time with family and friends at Lake Anna, Virginia, and supports various charitable organizations supporting education for the disadvantaged and two local homeless shelters supporting single women and their children.